given extra benefits over and above the normal benefits of their services;

(c) whether such benefits were given to our reservist airmen who were called for service in 1962; and

(d) if not, the reasons therefor?

The Minister of Defence (Shri Swaran Singh): (a) No, Sir. In accordance with the rules, only those airmen, who, at the time of their transfer to Reserve Establishment, did not return some of the items of personal clothing, were charged for those items at special recovery rates, on their recall in 1962.

(b) to (d). Government have no information about the extra benefits, if any, over and above the normal benefits of service, admissible to airmen in other countries. However, no extra benefits, over and above the normal benefits of service, were given to the reservist airmen who were called for service in 1962, as no such benefits were admissible to them under the rules.

Plan Publicity in Residential University Areas

7287. Shri R. K. Amin: Will the Minister of Information and Broadcasting be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is a special scheme for plan publicity in the residential university areas; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

The Minister of Information and Broadcasting (Shri K. K. Shah): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The Planning Forum Programme was initiated by the Planning Commission in 1956 in Universities and Colleges with a view to creating plan consciousness among the teachers and the students as well as associating them intimately with the formulation and implementation of the Five Year Plans. Besides organising lectures, discussions, debates, seminars and exhibitions, the Forums also conduct socio-economic surveys, collect money under small savings schemes and offer 'shramdan' for the construction of roads, bunds and river embankments, and undertake [illegible] works and conduct literacy classes for adults and children. Villages are also adopted by the Forums for all-round development work. For the celebration of National Plan Week by the Forums, grant-in-aid is given by the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting. The Forums organise debates, seminars, symposia etc. on this occasion. For other activities of the
