{ Shri S. M. Banerjee:
2384. { Shri Tangamani:
{ Shri Warier:

Will the Minister of Defence be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any proposal to utilise the surplus war-time equipment in Ordnance Establishments;

(b) if so, in what form; and

(c) the main features of the scheme?

The Deputy Minister of Defence (Shri Bagharamiah): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c). Utilisation of all defence equipment and stores in the best possible manner and thus reducing fresh purchases as much as possible in view of the shortage of foreign exchange are the important features of the scheme. The Service authorities were asked to devote more thought to the alternative utilisation of various equipments and stores and to utilise whatever they had got in the stocks to the fullest extent possible. An Inter-Services Technical Team was set up to examine the surplus stores lying in the various Defence Installations to ascertain the alternative uses to which the various equipment and stores could be put and this team has commenced its work. Pending such examination and the decision of Government thereon a temporary ban on disposal of surplus defence stores has been imposed
