(c) Due to severe constraint on the availability of resources, priority has been given to Howrah-Amta rail link which is in progress. In view of the continuing constraint of funds, and the need to complete the on-going sche. mes which have made sufficient progress, expeditiously, diversion of funds is resorted to as and when considered necessary, instead of spreading out the available resources thinky on all schemes. It is in this background, that the Eastern Railway were advised in the letter mentioned, for diversion of the funds.
