ORAL ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS-- contd.

SHORT NOTICE QUESTION—contd.

Shri S. M. Banerjee: Sir, my question has not been replied.

Mr. Speaker: What was his question?

Shri S. M. Banerjee: My question was whether it is a fact that after getting reports from other States, in addition to Mysore, some survey has been conducted in those areas or States which are famine-stricken and where scarcity conditions prevail; if so, whether reports have been received and steps taken by the Central Government to afford necessary help in those areas?

Mr. Speaker: Should we not devote all this time to the debate that is coming up today? He is going out of the Mysore limit and asking questions that are not relevant.

Shri S. M. Banerjee: My question was about other States in addition to Mysore.

Mr. Speaker: I think all the time should be devoted to the debate so that the question of all States can be taken up there instead of putting these questions. Calling Attention Notice.

Shri Nath Pal: Your ruling is very correct but we do not get specific replies about the specific difficulties. He will be giving reply only to the general points. You are putting an omnibus ban on questions.

Mr. Speaker: It is not an omnibus ban. Immediately we are taking up the food debate.

Shri Bade: We have also received letters from Madhya Pradesh....

Mr. Speaker: That is why I say that all those questions could be taken up there.

Shri Bade: That question of ban will not be discussed in the debate. That is a particular question.

Mr. Speaker: If the hon. Members want, I can extend it. But that will be taken out of the time of the debate.

Shri S. M. Banerjee: Kindly hear me. My question was about the other States in addition to Mysore.

Mr. Speaker: I cannot go out of Mysore limit during the Short Notice Question. We now take up the Calling Attention Notice. Shri Yashpal Singh.

श्री जय लिये : बाय समया वाली बहस के बाद इसको क्यों नहीं लेते, इस समय खत्म कर दीजिये ।
