Death of Ladakhi Lamas in Tibet

*1638. Shri D. C. Sharma: Will the Prime Minister be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that several Buddhist Lamas of Ladakh detained in Tibet had died in Chinese concentration camps;

(b) whether it is also a fact that several Ladakhi lamas have been recruited by the Chinese in road construction gangs;

(c) whether it is also a fact that these lamas are being victimised because they had refused to play into the hands of the Chinese against India; and

(d) if so, the action proposed to be taken in the matter?

The Deputy Minister in the Ministry of External Affairs (Shri Dinesh Singh): (a) We do not know whether any Ladakhi Lama died in Chinese detention in Tibet.

(b) Although we have no precise information, we understand that most of these Ladakhi Lamas were pressed into road gangs. Ladakhi Lamas who returned from Tibet in 1960-61 reported that they were forced to do road construction work and engage in other forms of hard labour by the Chinese authorities.

(c) We understand that some Ladakhi Lamas were treated harshly in jail as they refused to cooperate with the Chinese in their activities against India.

(d) We represented to the Chinese Government for the release of all Ladakhi Lamas under detention in Tibet. According to our information, most of them have come away to India. There are a few still left in Tibet but we do not have precise information about them. Whenever a case comes to the notice of our Consul General, he takes it up with the Foreign Bureau in Lhasa and tries to secure the release and return of the Lama to India.
