

to start a Film Institute, the Government might adopt or adjust the Institute referred to in the question for that purpose, I might say that the Sircar Committee visited not only this Institute but some other institutes also for the purpose of finding out whether the institutes that were working are adequate or what other experience we can gain from them. That was not meant to make any recommendations for this Institute. That was only advisory.

Shri Palanlandi: What is the function of the Film Institute?

Dr. Keskar: The Film Institute is yet to come. There is a Bill pending before the Rajya Sabha, the National Film Board Bill. In that, a proposal for a Film Institute is included.

Shri Keshava: Who are the Members of this Committee? Will the Government please place a copy of the report on the Table of the House?

Dr. Keskar: This is not a type of Committee which was meant to make any recommendations to the Government about the possible Film Institute. A draft proposal for a Film Institute is already before Parliament; as I said, it has been introduced in the other House. As far as this report is concerned, it is a small technical report giving information regarding the Institutes that exist. That is all. There is no Committee existing. It has been dissolved already. It does not exist any more.
