

placed persons. After a review of the situation, it was considered desirable that they should be accommodated in a few regular Homes organised in the State. Action has accordingly been taken to transfer the destitute persons from Harni and Warasia Camps to the Homes recently set up at Ahmedabad and Kandla.

(b) These persons have been staying in the Camps in Baroda since the opening of these Camps, i.e. soon after the Partition.

(c) There was a proposal for starting a Home at Warasia in the Baroda State, but it was dropped as it was found necessary to construct more buildings there at a considerable cost.
