

OPTION FOR PAKISTAN

*300. Pandit D. N. Tiwary: (a) Will the Minister of Home Affairs be pleased to state how many of those Government servants who, after Partition, opted for Pakistan have come over to India again and been absorbed in services here and the requests of how many have been turned down, up-to-date?

(b) Have any of those who opted for India, gone to Pakistan and joined service and settled there?

(c) Are there any persons in India either in Government or private service whose wives and children have settled in Pakistan and if so, what is the number thereof?

(d) Are there any persons in the services of Pakistan whose families are still in India?

The Minister of Home Affairs and States (Dr. Katju): (a) Exact figures are not available. Information as far as could be ascertained through a Press Note shows that 170 Central Government servants who opted for Pakistan (final) and who were compelled to come out of that country due to disturbances after partition have been re-employed under the Government of India on a temporary basis.

(b) About 1200 persons who opted for service in India finally left for Pakistan. It is not known whether they joined service and settled down in that country.

(c) Information regarding the number of persons who are in Government service in India and whose wives and children have settled down in Pakistan is being collected and will be laid on the Table of the House in due course. It is not, however, possible to ascertain the number of those persons who are in private service in India and whose wives and children have settled in Pakistan.

(d) Government have no information. Nor is it possible for them to collect this information.
