accommodation and the serious difficulties experienced by millions of travelling public during this period?

Shri Alagesan: I do not think there are any accommodation difficulties. But I may say that some hon. Members of the House have complained of guests in their houses.

Shri S. C. Samanta: The hon. Minister stated that the issue of zonal tickets has been extended. May I know whether it is a fact that the issue of tickets on a zonal basis has also been abolished and return tickets on a concessional basis would be issued?

Shri Alagesan: These are zonal tickets and are current only for the zones in which they are issued.

The extension is also on a zonal basis.
