

Shri M. V. Krishnappa: Most of these people are fishermen. Only the fishermen come forward for training on fishing business. Generally, it is so.

Shri Joachim Alva: May I know whether the Government have a proposal by which intelligent boys from the fishermen community along the west coast, including Travancore-Cochin and Malabar, could be sent to Japan for training?

Shri M. V. Krishnappa: We have trained sufficient number of men. We have imported Japanese experts for fish-trawling operations on our own coast and they have trained a sufficient number of men. Why should we send our people to Japan? We need not go to Japan.

Shri A. M. Thomas: May I know whether there is an offer by the Norwegian project officers in Travancore-Cochin who are at present working there, to extend their activities, and if so, what have the Government done with regard to that offer?

Shri M. V. Krishnappa: This question only refers to the Norwegian aid programme, and I do not know whether any offer has been made to extend their activities.
