

Shri S. V. Ramaswamy: What is the function and scope of this Inspectorate?

Shri Jawaharlal Nehru: Naturally, to inspect.

TECHNICAL TRAINING CENTRE

*1617. Shri Subodh Hasda: Will the Minister of Planning be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a Technical Training Centre has been started at Jhargram Project Block in West Bengal;

(b) if so, the nature of training imparted there; and

(c) the amount of money spent thereon so far?

The Deputy Minister of Planning (Shri S. N. Mishra): (a) The training centre has not yet started. The construction of the building is in progress.

(b) and (c). Do not arise.

Shri Subodh Hasda: May I know whether priority will be given to the students of the locality?

Shri S. N. Mishra: Naturally, Sir.

Shri N. B. Chowdhury: May I know the number of trainees that are likely to be accommodated in these training centres?

Shri S. N. Mishra: The total number of trainees would be 160.

Shri Thimmaiah: How many training centres do the Government propose to open throughout the country?

Shri S. N. Mishra: I cannot give the exact number so far as the entire country is concerned.

STAFF OF MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS

*1619. Shri Ramji Verma: Will the Prime Minister be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a large number of displaced Central Government Servants serving under the control of the Ministry of External Affairs in the N.W.F.P. Tribal Area and Agencies were declared surplus sometime back;

(b) whether it is also a fact that simultaneously fresh recruits, and displaced State Government servants were appointed in the Ministry; and

(c) if so, the reasons therefor?

The Deputy Minister of External Affairs (Shri Anil K. Chanda): (a) The number of displaced Central Government servants, who came to India from areas formerly administered by the late External Affairs Department, was so large that it was not possible to absorb even a small proportion in the Ministry of External Affairs and most of them had, therefore, to be declared surplus. All displaced Central Government servants who approached the Ministry for employment were, however, directed to the Central Transfer Bureau for employment to be found for them.

(b) and (c). As and when posts were created or vacancies occurred in the Ministry of External Affairs, requirements were intimated to the Central Transfer Bureau of the Ministry of Home Affairs and the posts were filled on the advice of the Bureau and subject to suitability of the candidates for Foreign Service in accordance with the standards prescribed by the Ministry. In this process fresh recruits and displaced State Government servants were appointed as well as some displaced Central Government servants from the N.W.F.P. Tribal Areas and Agencies, who had been declared surplus.

Shri Rishang Keishing: May I know the number of displaced Central Government servants from the N.W.F.P. Tribal Area and Agencies?

Shri Anil K. Chanda: Fifty-four have been employed in our Ministry, but I am not able to supply the total number of such persons.

Shri Rishang Keishing: May I know whether any scheme is under the contemplation of the Government of India to re-employ the displaced Central Government servants?

Shri Anil K. Chanda: So far as our information goes, all of them have been
