(SHRI KHURSHID ALAM KHAN) :

Towards the end of 1984 the Prime Minister announced a gift of 100,000 tonnes of wheat for the most needy of the African countries affected by drought and famine. Most of this wheat has already reached the various destinations, and the balance is in the process of being shipped, as advised by the World Food Programme, through whom the gift is being channelised. The value of this gift is about Rs. 23 crores. In addition, the Prime Minister has agreed to gift 10,000 tonnes of wheat flour, and 500 tonnes of "Chana dal" to Mauritius, in response to a request made by the Prime Minister of that country.

Further, the Government of India have this month announced a contribution of wheat valued at Rs. 12 crores to the Special Emergency Assistance Fund for Drought and Famine in Africa, set up by the Organisation of African Unity.

India is also sending out teams to certain African countries to prepare feasibility studies for the development of their agriculture and water resources, besides providing training in India to their nominees in these fields. Gifts of medicines have been distributed to several African countries over the past two years, and it is also intended to send a medical team to Ethiopia.
