Criteria and Guidelines

Grants are given to registered voluntary organisations which have at least two years experience and competence to take up the Scheme, are well managed stable organisations and not run for any profit and where services are open to all without distinction of class, religion, etc.

Grants are given for construction, extension, repair and rent of buildings, salaries of staff to run the Scheme, cost of furniture and equipments and other necessary contingent expenditure.

The Ministry has not conducted any survey of voluntary organisations working in the field of welfare of the aged.
