(d) In most cases, delays occur because there is no response from the referees whose names are given by the applicants themselves. It is for the applicants to ensure that formalities are completed within the shortest time. The UTI is considering the question of fixing a time schedule for treating the cases in respect of which there is no response from the referees as rejected.

Prices of Synthetic and Cotton Clothes

1164. SHRI KADAMBUR JANARTHANAN : Will the Minister of TEXTILES be pleased to state :

(a) the effect on prices of clothes both synthetic and cotton consequent on the implementation of the new textile policy; and

(b) if the price has increased, the reasons thereof ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF TEXTILES (SHRI KHURSHID ALAM KHAN): (a) and (b). There was increase in the prices of cotton (mill) cloth and handloom cloth by 2.3% and 1.4% respectively between May, 1985 and May, 1986. These were, however, below the level that had taken place one year prior to announcement of the new Textile Policy in June, 1985 which were 5.1% and 3.1% respectively. The prices of blended cloth dropped by 10% during this period. Marginal increase in prices of mill made and handloom cloth is attributable to the increase in the cost of various inputs.

1984-85	801,336	35,029
1985-86	875,575	39,606

*As per the information available from the State Government.

(b) The steps taken by the Central Government to promote tourism in different States of the country include identification of new centres of tourist potential, construction of low budget accommodations of Yatri Niwases and Yatrikas and other facilities at the existing tourist centres, promotion of packages specially for the youths and provision of wayside facilities along important roads, providing better railways and airlines connections and encouraging tour packages offered by public and private sector travel agents. Publicity campaigns are also undertaken to create special awareness among the people about domestic tourism. As regards Jammu and Kashmir, apart from a special Kashmir promotion campaign, the railways and Indian Airlines have introduced concessional fares for travel to Kashmir. The State Government, the hotels and the house-boat owners have been persuaded to announce concessions. Besides, the State Government in collaboration with ITDC has organised a very successful Festival of Kashmir which would be repeated to promote the culture and cuisine of other States also.
