

Child Welfare Schemes

1723. SHRI MRUTYUNJAYA NAYAK: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the names of the schemes being implemented by the Union Government for child welfare;

(b) the expenditure incurred per child on child care in the country; and

(c) the steps taken by the Government to reduce the child mortality rate in the country?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DEPARTMENT OF YOUTH AFFAIRS & SPORTS AND THE DEPARTMENT OF WOMEN AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT) (KUMARI MAMATA BANERJEE): (a) Some of the major schemes being implemented by the Union Government for Child Development & Welfare are: Integrated Child Development Services Scheme, Scheme of Creches for Children, Wheat Based Nutrition Programme, Baiwadi Nutrition Programme, Early Childhood Education Programme and Centrally sponsored scheme for children in need of care and protection.

(b) A number of schemes for Child Development & Welfare in Central and State Sector are being implemented in the country. In addition, many voluntary organisations are also implementing schemes for Child Development & Welfare in various parts of the country. Hence it would not be possible to work out the per child expenditure on child care in the country.

(c) The Government of India have taken up following programmes to achieve reduction in infant mortality rate:—

1. Immunization against preventable childhood diseases.

2. Prophylaxis against anaemia and blindness due to vitamin A deficiency, and

3. Oral rehydration therapy for control of deaths due to diarrhoeal diseases.

In addition, towards the end of the 7th Plan, two more programmes were launched on a pilot basis, aiming at reduction of maternal and child mortality. These are:

1. Intensification of the Dais' training for improving prenatal and delivery care for domiciliary deliveries; and

2. Initiating an intensified programme for the control of acute respiratory infections among children.

RE. TAPPING OF TELEPHONES
OF POLITICAL LEADERS

[Translation]

SHRI MADAN LAL KHURANA (South Delhi): Mr. Speaker, Sir, I have given a notice to you under Rule 193 to raise the issue of tapping of telephones of political leaders by the Karnataka Government. Telephones of 19 Leaders including a Union Minister associated with the Hon. Prime Minister and two former Chief Ministers have been tapped. The Government of Shri Ram Krishna Hegde had fallen on the same issue. My submission to you is that it is a very serious issue. Therefore, a full fledged discussion should be held on it in the House. This Government and also the previous Government had assured repeatedly that telephones of political leaders would not be tapped. Government of Karnataka have tapped the telephones despite these assurances. I, therefore, would like to request you to allow a full fledged discussion on the issue in the House under Rule 193 and the Government should state the position.

[English]

SHRI M. V. CHANDRASHEKARA MURTHY (Kanakapura): Sir, This is not the first time that we are discussing this vital and sensitive issue. This issue was widely discussed and agitated in this House even in 1988 and the then Chief Minister had to pay a heavy price and he resigned his Chief Ministership.

It is reported that telephones of several leaders in Karnataka are alleged to have been tapped. I am also one among the victims.

We have certain rights and duties to perform. More than that, we are having some privileges.

You tell us whether the Members of this House can function freely and effectively in such circumstances.

It is a gross violation of the democratic values and morale and ethics in public life.

I demand from both the Home Minister and the Minister for Communications to order a joint inquiry and to come before this House with a statement immediately.
