Uprooting of People from Manibali Area of Narmada

910. SHRI RAM VILAS PASWAN:
SHRI MOHAN SINGH (DEORIA):
SHRI NITISH KUMAR:

Will the Minister of WATER RESOURCES be pleased to state:

(a) whether attention of the Government has been drawn to the report appearing in the Telegraph dated June 3, 1993 quoting a human rights campaign regarding apprehension of demolition of property eviction of people from their habit and even threat to their lives in Manibali area of Narmada; and

(b) if so, the measures taken or propose to be taken by the Government to protect the tribals and to check their uprooting from their homes?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF WATER RESOURCES (SHRI P.K. THUNGON): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The Sardar Sarover Project is being constructed under the Narmada Water Dispute Tribunal Award which has laid down guidelines for resettlement and rehabilitation of the Project affected families taking into account the traditional rights of the tribals. The State Governments of Gujarat, Madhya Pradesh and Maharashtra have announced resettlement and rehabilitation packages for the Sardar Sarover Project affected families which are more liberal than those contained in the Award. The aims of the resettlement and rehabilitation policies of the three State Governments are to improve the standard of living and quality of life of the project affected people including the tribals. The tribals in the project affected area who are being resettled are bound to gain immensely from these package. Narmada Control Authority has set up a Sub Group on Resettlement and Rehabilitation of Sardar Sarover Project affected people with Secretary in Union Ministry of Welfare has Chairman to oversee the implementation of resettlement and rehabilitation programme as per the policies:
