

sought through court procedure, one-time settlement etc. The Reserve Bank of India has advised the banks to strengthen their organisational arrangement for early detection of sickness as also to review the adequacy of the information system and the administrative set-up for detecting incipient sickness.

The financial institutions also have comprehensive monitoring system consisting of periodical project implementation/ progress reports, plant visits, feed back from nominee directors of assisted units to closely follow-up the performance of any company. In cases where poor performance is noticed, necessary remedial steps are initiated in consultation with the sick units. While framing rehabilitation package for units found viable, the legitimate dues of labour are kept in view and suitable provisions made for their payment.

The Board for Industrial and Financial Reconstruction (BIFR) has been set up under the Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985 to determine preventive and ameliorative steps in respect of sick units. The objective of the Act is inter-alia to secure timely detection of potentially sick industrial units for speedy determination of preventive measures.

Honorarium to Officials engaged in defending cases

386. SHRI HARISH PAL: Will the Minister of LAW AND JUSTICE be pleased to refer to the reply given on September 7, 1990 to Unstarred Question No.5056 regarding honorarium to officials engaged in defending cases in CAT and state:

(a) whether the requisite information has since been collected;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) if not, the reasons therefor and the time by which it will be collected?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE AND MINISTER OF LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRI SUBRAMANIAM SWAMY): (a) to (c). Government has not taken any decision not to appoint private lawyers to defend the cases in the courts or tribunals. Since government cases are defended by government counsel, the question of cases being defended by officials or payment of honorarium to them in this regard does not arise.
