Postal Services in Rural Areas

3442. SHRI HARIN PATHAK: Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Government have reviewed the mail delivery and other postal services in the rural areas;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the action taken by the Government thereon?

THE MINISTER OF COMMUNICATIONS (SHRI BENI PRASAD VARMA): (a) Yes, Sir. The Government systematically monitors and reviews at the field and Headquarters level the delivery of mails in the rural areas. Other postal services in the rural areas are also periodically subjected to scrutiny and review. There is also a system of conducting regular surveys through inspectorial staff for examining the justification of opening Post Offices.

(b) The Postal Services in the rural areas are generally satisfactory but occasional delays in delivery of mails do occur due to unforeseen transportation problems and other such reasons beyond the control of the Department.

(c) (i) The review of delivery of mails is an ongoing process. The reasons for delays to mails, if any, are identified by carrying out surveys at different levels.

(ii) The Postal services are being extended progressively by opening new Post Offices. Under the 8th Five Year Plan, so far, 1312 Post Office have been sanctioned in the rural areas of the country.
