

(c) In the Head Post Offices, after 31st March, institutional accounts are listed separately from individual accounts showing account number and closing balance including annual interest. However, no distinction is made as between rural and urban accounts. The reason is that in the rules governing Small Savings Schemes, distinction is made as between individual and institutional accounts for purposes of maximum balance, rate of interest etc., but not between urban and rural accounts. However, since post offices can be classified as urban and rural, when necessary savings figures can also be compiled separately for urban and rural post offices.

Use of Loud Speakers by Religious Institutions in Janakpuri, New Delhi

7024 SHRI MAHI LAL: Will the Minister of WORKS AND HOUSING AND SUPPLY AND REHABILITATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether it has come to his notice that the religious institution situated on the plots allotted to them by D.D.A. in Janakpuri, New Delhi, use loudspeakers for several hours daily;

(b) if so, whether it is against the conditions of lease entered into between D.D.A. and the parties concerned; and

(c) the steps proposed to be taken in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF WORKS AND HOUSING AND SUPPLY AND REHABILITATION (SHRI SIKANDAR BAKHT): (a) and (b). It is a fact that religious institutions frequently use loudspeakers in Delhi. The lease deeds entered into between the D.D.A. and the religious institutions however do not contain any condition preventing the use of loudspeakers by such institutions.

(c) In view of the position explained above, this does not arise.
