(upto June 1980) contracts have been concluded with six countries for supply of crude oil. The details of the countries from which crude oil has been received are as under:

Import of Crude Oil

7739. SHRI RAMJIBHAI MAVANI:
Will the Minister of PETROLEUM AND CHEMICALS be pleased to state:

(a) how many countries agreed to supply crude oil and other petroleum products to India during 1978, 1979 and 1980 and the details thereof;

(b) how much has been received during three years;

(c) what further steps are being taken to import large quantity of crude as well as for increasing production; and

(d) the encouragement and incentive to be offered in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF PETROLEUM, CHEMICALS AND FERTILIZERS (SHRI VEERENDRA PATIL): (a) During 1978 India had imported crude oil from five countries and for the year 1979 India imported crude oil from Eight countries. For the year 1980

1978	1979	1980
Iraq	Iraq	Iraq
USSR	Iran	USSR
UAE	USSR	UAE
Saudi Arabia	UAE	Saudi Arabia (As part of Exxon contract)
Iran	Saudi Arabia	Iran
	Libya	Nigeria
	Nigeria
	Qatar

During 1978, 1979 and 1980 (up to June) India has imported petroleum products from six countries, the details of which are given below:

1978	1979	1980
Iraq	Iraq	Iraq
Pakistan	Pakistan	Pakistan
Iran	Iran	Iran
Kuwait	Kuwait	Kuwait
USSR	USSR	USSR
Sri Lanka	Sri Lanka	Sri Lanka

(b) Imports of crude oil and petroleum products during the years 1978, 1979 and 1980 (upto June) are given below:

Year	Crude Oil	Petroleum Products
1978	14.58	3.14
1979	16.58	3.23
1980 (upto June)	7.83	1.71

(c) The Government intends to meet the import requirements of crude in the future also by supplies from our traditional sources as also from new potential sources that are being explored at present. Attempts are also being made to intensify our exploration activities and plans are being made for the exploitation of our established reserves with a view to increase the indigenous production of crude oil.

(d) Crude Oil contracts are generally concluded with Government owned companies of the Oil Producing and Exporting Countries. Imports of Petroleum Products are also effected either by negotiating with government owned companies of Oil Producing and Exporting Countries or by floating tenders. In view of this need for offering any special incentive in the matter does not arise.
