Ad hoc Appointments in Dandakaranya Project

2012. SHRI SAMAR MUKHERJEE: Will the Minister of SUPPLY AND REHABILITATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware of the abuse of the powers of appointing authorities in Dandakaranya Project to appoint/promote employees in ad hoc terms in such large number of cases (each in some cases, by observing all formalities of recruitment rules and recruitment) for such long duration and treat such recruits/personnel less than casual employees denying them, among other things, the minimum protection of statutory temporary service Rules viz. CCS (TS) Rules, 1965; and

(b) the reasons why this practice of recruiting on ad hoc terms in Dandakaranya Project and treating the ad hoc employees less than casual employees with 240 days' service at credit became common with the administration there and why this could not be reduced to minimum and totally eliminated before long?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF SUPPLY AND REHABILITATION (SHRI P. K. THUNGON): (a) No, Sir.

(b) Ad hoc appointments are made in the interest of work.
