Disposal of Pension Cases

5299 SHRI KUSUMA KRISHNA MURTHY: Will the Minister FINANCE be pleased to state:

What steps Government have taken during the last one year and what steps Government are going to take to ensure speedy disposal of long pending cases (some times pending decades) and new cases of pension in terms of:—

- (i) any scheme and organisation to dispose of the pending cases on a time bound basis:
- (ii) any scheme or a body set up for ad hoc grants of pension to long pending and new cases of exceptional distrem; and
- (iii) any scheme or body set up to look into typical cases of delays and harassnent in disbursement of pensions?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI SAWA'I SINGH SISODIA): Detailed instructions exist for sanction of pension. In accordance with these instructions, the process to sanction pension is initiated 2 years in advance of the date of retirement of a Govt. servant. A system of monitoring of pension cases also exists to watch instances of delay. No information regarding inordinate delay sanction of pensions is centrally avail-As the number of persons retiring every year is very large, delay in some casses cannot be wholly eliminated. However, provisional pension is authorised in cases where delay is anticipated.

THE procedure regarding processing of pension cases and disbursement of pension is reviewed from time to time and necessary steps, wherever necessary, are taken to cut out delays. For instance recently, the procedure regarding issue of No Demand Certificate by Directorate of Estate has been further streamlined. To obiviate delay in payment of arrears of pension to survivers of deceased pensioners, the Pension Act, 1871 has been amended to provide for nomination by pension-

Pension is sanctioned by the pective administrative authorities. There is no scheme or sparate organisation to dispose of pending cases. to sanction ad hoc pension etc. or to look into delays in sanction of pension.

Publications by Reserve Bank of Iudia

5300. SHRIMATI GEETA MUKHER-JEE. Will the Ministtr of FINANCE be pleased to state:

invited to reply to U.S.Q. No. 4459 dated 6-8-1982. Regarding the study on finances of branches and foreign controlled rupee companies, the study could not be undertaken since all branches were under different stages of indianisation under FERA and it would not have been feasible to under_ take a realistic study. However, the RBI continues to publish information on corporate sector finances and these studies cover several aspects of foreign company operations. Further, all companies are statutorily required to publish information regadwing imports, remittances etc., in their annual balance sheets and this could be a valuable source for anyone wishing to assess the impact of operation foreign companies. The Reserve Bank is expected to resume its studies after the impact of the FERA, 1973 becomes clear.

5301. SHRI R. P. GAEKWAD: Will the Minister of TOURISM AND CIVIL AVIATION be pleased to state:

- (a) whether it is a fact that there is acute shortage of venues for holding international conferences in the captal:
- (b) what is the present arrangement for holding world conferences in the capital;
- (c) whether it is a fact that more than one international conference cannot take place simultaneously in New Delhi due to inadequate facilities for suitable venues, interpretation, secretariat and press facilities in the capital; and
- (d) what proposals are under consideration of Government to remove the present deficiency and help promote tourism so immensely linked with world meets?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF TOURISM AND CIVIL AVIATION (SHRI KHURSEED ALAM KHAN): (a) No. Sir.

- (b) and (c). For international Conferences Vigyan Bhavan is a full-fiedged Conference Complex. Besides international Conferences are also held at Ashok Hotel Convention Hall which has simultaneous interpretation arrangement and the other facilities required. Some other five star hotels in the capital also offer facilities for medium and small size conferences, though they do not have simultaneous translation facilities
- (d) With the completion of many hotels in Delhi, substantial additional facilities would be available for hold_ ing international conferences in the capital. A proposal is under consideration for making Ashok/Samrat Hotel Complex a full_fledged International Convention Centre with all modern fucilities including simultaneous inter_ conference services and other secretarial infrasctrue.

The Department of Tourism and Air-India are pointly promoting Conventon/Conference traffic to India and Delhi specifically, through their offices abroad. Publicity materials including an audio-visual presentation has also been produced for this purpose.
