

ed from the purview of the notification of the Delhi Administration dated the 13th November, 1959, issued under section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, specifying the Government's intention to acquire about 34,000 acres of land for the planned development of Delhi. However, as a result of the scheme for the acquisition, development and disposal of land in Delhi, details of which were laid on the Table of the Lok Sabha on the 23rd March, 1961, in connection with the Calling Attention Motion by Shri P. G. Deb, the prices of land have, it is understood, gone down considerably and therefore no further steps are considered necessary at present.
