Emergency Finn for Rollef during Natural Calamities

1468. SHRI ARJUN SETHI. Will the Minister of PLANNING be pleased to state:

(a) whether States have been asked to plan for emergency to avoid unplanned expenditure on relief during natural calamities and if so, the outlines thereof; and

(b) whether this will be introduced in the Fifth Plan or from the current year of the 4th plan?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING (SHRI MOHAN DHARIA): (a) Yes, Sir. In the detailed guidelines issued by the Planning Commission in connection with the formulation of the draft Fifth Plans, the State Governments have been requested to initiate work on the preparation of contingency plans for natural calamities This would call for the identification of areas prone to natural calamities, spelling out of the priorities to be assigned to various types of labour intensive work in each area and the preparation of an adequate list of "standby works' for each N.E.S. block in conformity with local priorities

(b) The preparation of contingency plans on the lines indicated would take some time It is, therefore, likely that it would be possible to take up their implementation only in the Fifth Five Year Plan period

Labour Unrest in Industrial Units in Private Sector

1493 SHRI INDRAJIT GUPTA: Will the Minister of INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AND SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY be pleased to state:

(a) whether it has come to the notice of Government that some industrial units in the private sector are deliberately trying to curtain the production of essential commodities by provoking labour troubles with a view to discredit Government;

(b) whether it has also come to the notice of Government that some such industries are perpetuating labour unrest by refusing arbitration by Ministers, and

(c) if so whether there is any proposal to take over such industries?

THE MINISTER OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AND SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY (SHRI C. SUBRA-MANIAM) (a) to (c) There have been some cases where management in the private industrial sector have chosen to declare lock-outs leading to stoppage of production, rather than make a sincere attempt to resolve outstanding issues with the workers. either through bilateral negotiations or by accepting the good offices of public authorities. Powers are available under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the Essential Commodities Act. 1955 and the Defence of India Rules, 1971 to deal with such cases and to sume production Take-over of management under Section 18AA of the I(D&R) Act will also be considered wherever appropriate
