

by an over-whelming majority. According to this resolution, the membership of the Security Council will be increased from 11 to 15 and that of the Economic and Social Council from 18 to 27. When the two Councils are enlarged, the Afro-Asian members will have five non-permanent seats on the Security Council and twelve seats on the Economic and Social Council. The implementation on the resolution will require amendments of the Charter, which will come into operation when two-thirds of the Members of the United Nations, including all permanent members of the Security Council, have ratified them.
