The Deputy Minister in the Ministry of Labour, Employment and Rehabilitation (Shri D. R. Chavan): (a) and (b). A purchaser of an acquired evacuee property is given provisional possession on payment of purchase price by him through compensation for verified claims payable to him or his associates. The tenants are attorned to him and they enjoy protection of two years from ejectment from the said date. The purchaser, to whom the tenants are attorned, can under the ordinary law maintain a suit for ejectment. The purchasers cannot be prevented from taking recourse to civil courts if they are entitled to get relief.
