

Figures for April-May, 1966 include black and white cine films also as the 'coloured cine films' were not separately classified in the Revised Indian Trade Classification before June, 1966.

(b) Yes, Sir.

(c) Colour film manufacture was not covered in the terms of collaboration under which the present project was set up.

(d) Hindustan Photo Films are considering the selection of a suitable collaborator for this purpose. They are expected to finalise the selection and submit early a project report for the manufacture of colour films, to Government for approval and sanction. Efforts are being made by Hindustan Photo Films to establish the colour film project during the IV Plan period.

(e) Hindustan Photo Films went into production only in January, 1967. The value of cine film, X-ray films etc. produced by Hindustan Films so far is given below:-

| Year | Production (Rs. in lakhs) |
|---------|---------------------------|
| 1966-67 | 20.37 |
| 1967-68 | 142.25 |

In the first two years of production, there have been no profits. The Company is expected to reach the break-even point in 1969-70 after which a reasonable rate of return may be expected.
