

from Govt. of Gujarat the following incidents of alleged atrocities on minorities and their institutions had occurred.

The Norada Gram Panchayat passed a resolution for the removal of several unauthorised structures in Naroda, Ahmedabad. The fifty four such structures given due notice under the provision of the Gujarat Panchayat Act, 1993 included in illegal encroachment by the Catholic Diocese near Deepnagar, and a Hindu Temple.

On 18.7.98 an organisation called Gideons Christian International distributed Booklets by the name "Navo Karar" among the students of the I.P. Mission School, Rajkot City with the consent of the School authorities. The printed forms of the Booklet created misunderstanding and 15-20 persons lodged protest to the Principal of the School on 20.7.98 against these Booklets. Subsequently they burnt 300 copies of the same outside the school. On 23.7.98 the school authorities lodged the complaint with Rajkot Police in this regard and in pursuance thereof 6 persons were arrested immediately and a case has been registered. The incident did not escalate thereafter.

Apart from this 6 other minor incidents also took place in Gujarat. Police and District Administration had intervened in time and controlled the situation.

There are no reports of any minority community from Gujarat State having been driven out on religious grounds through some people reportedly shifted temporarily from Randhikpur, District Dahod but have now come back to their homes.

(i) The question does not arise.

(j) and (k) Yes Sir, the National Commission for Minorities had sent a delegation headed by its member, Dr. James Messy to Gujarat in August 98 to assess the situation and the Commission has submitted its report to the Govt. of Gujarat and National Human Right Commission for taking necessary action.

Migration from Border Areas of J&K

1407. SHRI INDRAJIT GUPTA:
SHRI NARESH PUGLIA:
SHRI SUSHIL KUMAR SHINDE:
DR. T. SUBBARAMI REDDY:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether some villagers in Uri and other sectors along the border and the Line of Control in Jammu & Kashmir had evacuated on account of continued heavy firing and shelling by Pakistani troops during the last six months;

(b) if so, the details thereof indicating the number of civilians and security personnel killed; and

(c) the Central assistance sought and given for their resettlement and rehabilitation?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) and (b) A number of border villages of Kargil, Gurez, Kamah, Keran, Matchil and Uri in Kashmir division and of Biehnah, Samba, R.S. Pura and Hiranagar in Jammu division have been subjected to heavy firing from across the border. The inhabitants of some of these villages had to temporarily shift from their villages to safer places. 72 civilians and 58 security personnel have been killed in Jammu & Kashmir so far since May, 1998 in the unprovoked firing by Pakistan.

(c) No proposal regarding Central assistance specifically for resettlement and rehabilitation has been received. However, ex-gratia payment at the prescribed rates is given to the next-of-kin of those killed and to the injured, which is reimbursed by the Central Government. State Government have announced free ration for the victims of border firing.
