(श्री रामेश्वर तेली)

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS
(SHRI RAMESWAR TELI)

(a) to (c): The prices of petrol and diesel in the international market are mutually agreed upon between buyers and sellers. These vary across companies, consignments and time periods.

Refinery Transfer Price (RTP) is the price paid by oil marketing companies to refiners for purchase of petroleum products. RTP is worked out for each port and every inland refinery and varies from port to port mainly on account of ocean freight to respective port and for inland refineries on freight from nearest port to location of the refinery.

Along with deregulation of retail prices of Petrol and Diesel, refinery gate price was also deregulated with effect from 26th June 2010 and 19th October 2014 respectively.

The current Retail Selling Prices of petrol and diesel at Kolkata are Rs. 106.03 and Rs. 92.76 per litre respectively. The details of daily Retail Selling Prices (RSP) of petrol and diesel in four metro cities viz. Delhi, Mumbai, Kolkata and Chennai are available at the website of Petroleum Planning and Analysis Cell (PPAC) i.e. www.ppac.gov.in
