Closure of Extension Centres in Kerala

6540. SHRI P.C. CHACKO : Will the Minister of INDUSTRY be pleased to state :

(a) whether small industries service institute under Development Commissioner (SSI) have decided to close down their extension centres at shornur, Kozhikode, Muvattupuzha and Attingal in Kerala;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether the Union Government propose to review their decision not to close down Extension Centres which are useful for SSI sectors; and

(d) if so, the details thereof ?

THE MINISTER OF INDUSTRY (SHRI MURASOLI MARAN): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) In 1992, a review of activities of SIDO (Small Industries Development Organisation) was taken up and it was found that SSIs were not using the services of the Extension Centres sufficiently. As such since their utility was not there, 37 Extension Centres were decided to be closed down which include the Extension Centres in Kerala. Respective State Governments were offered to take over these Centres. They were closed only after no State came forward to continue the activities.

(c) and (d) The assets of Extension Centres at Shoranur have already been transferred to Municipal Council, Shoranur, that of Muvattupuzha to Telecommunication and that of Attingal to Science & Technology Development (STED) Project, respectively. As regards Extension Centre Calicut, decision has been taken to transfer the assets to STED and COWD. In order to avoid spreading the resources of SIDO too thinly, it is not feasible to restart or open such centres.
