MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

(SHRI CH. VIDYASAGAR RAO)

(a)&(b): Yes, Sir. A desperate gangster wanted by the police of Uttar Pradesh, Rajasthan, Haryana and Delhi and his two associates were killed in an encounter with Delhi Police on 26th March, 2000. One AK-56 rifle, one 0.455 bore revolver and one 0.45pistol alongwith 21 spent and 11 live cartridges were recovered from them.

(c): As per the available information eleven such gangs are suspected to be operating in the National Capital Territory of Delhi.

(d): The steps taken to apprehend such desperate and hardened gangsters include interaction with State Police and Central Police Organisations for exchange of information/intelligence; setting up of a special inter-State Cell under Crime Branch of Delhi Police; and close watch on those suspected to have earlier given shelter to such criminals.

(e): The requisite details are given below:-

Year	Apprehended	Injured	Killed
