- (d) the names of districts likely to be covered under these schemes during 2000-2001 in the state?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE FOR RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI SUBHASH MAHARUA)

(a) to (d) The erstwhile Jawahar Rozgar Yojana (JRY) was restructured and renamed as Jawahar Gram Samridhi Yojana (JGSY) which is under implementation w.e.f. 1.4.99. The objective of the JGSY is to create need based infrastructure at the Village level so as to increase the opportunities for sustained employment. The programme is entirely implemented by the Gram Panchayats as per the felt need of the local community. There is no separate earmarking for Social Forestry and Horticulture under the JGSY. The works/activities which lead to the creation of infrastructure can be taken up by the Gram Panchayat with the approval of the Gram Sabha. The programme is implemented in all the districts of Maharashtra. The Statements indicating district-wise funds allocated, funds released, utilisation made and the number of works completed and works under progress since the launching of the JGSY i.e. 1999-2000 and the current year are at annexure.
