UNSTARRED QUESTION NO:1155
ANSWERED ON:31.07.2000
RECOGNISATION OF MEDICAL AND DENTAL COLLEGES
DUKHA BHAGAT;MD ANWARUL HAQUE

Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state:

- (a) the details of recognized medical and dental colleges functioning in the country; State-wise;
- (b) whether the number of medical and dental colleges is comparatively less in Bihar in comparison to other States as the population of this State is 10 per cent of the total population of the country;
- (c) whether the Government propose to set up a medical/dental college in Bihar;
- (d) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefore, and
- (e) the measures being contemplated by the Government to open more medical and dental colleges in the country, particularly in Bihar?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (PROF. RITA VERMA)

(a) The Medical Council of India has informed that there are 147 recognised medical colleges functioning in the country. The State-wise list of medical colleges is at Annexure I. The Dental Council of India has informed that there are 124 recognised/approved dental colleges in the country. The State-wise list of dental colleges is at Annexure II.

(b) As per information available with the Medical Council of India, there are 11 medical colleges in Bihar out of which 9 are recognised. As per information available with the Dental Council of India, there are 7 recognised/approved dental college in Bihar. No medical/dental college has been established in any State taking population criteria into account. As per the provisions of Indian Medical Council (Amendment) Act, 1993 and The Dentists (Amendment) Act, 1993 no medical/dental college can be established without the prior approval of the Central Government.

(c) & (d) Health being a State subject, Central Government has no scheme to open a medical/dental college in a State.

(e) Opening of medical and dental colleges are permitted under the provisions of Indian Medical Council (Amendment) Act, 1993 and Dentists (Amendment) Act, 1993 and regulations made thereunder. Any eligible person fulfilling the eligibility criteria and qualifying criteria prescribed in the Regulations of Medical Council of India and Dental Council of India can apply to Central Government for permission to open a new medical/dental college.
