Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE & EMPOWERMENT (DR. SANJAY PASWAN)

(a) The Government provides financial assistance to NGOs under the Scheme for Prevention of Alcoholism And Substance [Drugs] Abuse inter-alia for running De-addiction-cum-Rehabilitation Centres, and Drug Awareness & Counselling Centres. As a result of the efforts made by the Government by way of expansion of outreach programmes, organizing training for the functionaries, strengthening monitoring and evaluation mechanism, and taking steps for improving quality of services, a larger number of addicts have been able to benefit from the Scheme. The number of beneficiaries under the Scheme, which was 2.26 lakh in 1998-99 has gone up to 4.37 lakh in 2001-02.

(b) Details of the funds provided to NGOs under the Scheme during the last three years (State-wise) are given in the statement at Annexure-I.

(c) & (d) Instances come to the notice of the Government where a grantee organisation is found to be misutilising the funds, or the quality of services delivered by it is not commensurate with the funds released. In such cases, a show cause notice is issued to the organisation, and if the explanation is found to be unsatisfactory, then action is taken to blacklist the organisation.

A Statement showing the NGOs blacklisted under the Scheme for Prevention Of Alcoholism And Substance [Drugs] Abuse during the last three years is enclosed. (Annexure-II).
