GOVERNMENT OF INDIA RAILWAYS LOK SABHA

STARRED QUESTION NO:180 ANSWERED ON:31.07.2003 INFLAMABLE SUBSTANCES IN TRAINS IQBAL AHMED SARADGI;VILAS BABURAO MUTTEMWAR

Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether number of passengers are travelling in reserved and other coaches with inflamable substances without any check by the Railway staff/police;

(b) if so, whether the Railways have finalized any scheme to check travelling of unauthorized passengers with inflamable substances to prevent fir in trains;

(c) if so, the details thereof;

(d) whether instructions have been issued to the Railway staff/police for strict compliance of these instructions;and

(e) if so, the action being taken/to be taken against those Railway officials/employees who flouted the safety rules?

Answer

MINISTER OF RAILWAYS (SHRI NITISH KUMAR)

(a) to (e) : A Statement is laid on the Table of the House.

STATEMENT REFERRED TON RELPY TO PARTS (a) to (e) OFFHE LOK SABHA STARRED QUESTION NO. 180 FOFFST JULY, 2003 REGARDING INFLAMABLE SUBSTANCES IN TRAINS.

(a): No, Sir. Regular checks are conducted in trains to detect persons carrying inflamable articles.

(b) & (c): Besides regular checking, special drives are conducted at stations as well as in trains against persons carrying inflamable substances. In addition, publicity campaigns are also undertaken to educate the public about the hazard of carrying such substances.

(d) & (e) : Yes, Sir. Instructions already exist for taking the above mentioned preventive steps which are also reiterated from time to time. The Zonal Railways undertake drives adhering to such instructions. However, any dereliction of duty on the part of the staff is viewed seriously for taking suitable punitive action.