

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
LOK SABHA

UNSTARRED QUESTION NO.5676
ANSWERED ON 04.05.2005
POST OFFICES IN DELHI AND OSMANABAD
Name: Smt. Kapilata Ranesh/Pati Smt. Digambar Bapat

Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY be pleased to state:

- (a) The number of small and big post offices functioning in Delhi and Osmanabad district.
- (b) The number of postal employees working therein alongwith the number of Post Masters and Deputy Post Masters therein.
- (c) Since when they are in their current posts, and
- (d) The transfer policy adopted by the Government to facilitate rotation in postings?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (DR. SHAKEEL AHMAD)

(a) The number of post offices under various categories in Delhi and Osmanabad district are given below:-

| DELHI | | OSMANABAD DISTRICT | |
|---------------------------------|-----|---------------------------------|-----|
| Small post offices: | 14 | Small post offices: | 14 |
| Sub post offices: | 414 | Sub post offices: | 414 |
| Special Sub Post Office: | 13 | Special Sub Post Office: | 13 |
| Special Sub Post Office branch: | 134 | Special Sub Post Office branch: | 134 |

(b) & (c) There are 6977 postal employees working in Delhi, which include 18 Postmasters and 47 Deputy Postmasters. The Postmaster and Deputy Postmasters are all working in their present assignments for less than four years. There are 121 postal employees working in Osmanabad District, which include 1 Postmaster and 1 Deputy Postmaster. Both the Postmaster and Deputy Postmaster are working in their posts from 14.4.2005.

(d) Postal employees are generally transferred after completion of four years in an office/post, on annual transfer of the employees, except in the cases of postmen and Group 'U' officials, who are non transferable.