TOLL CHARGES

Dhindsa Shri Sukhdev Singh;Libra Shri Sukhdev Singh

Will the Minister of SHIPPING, ROAD TRANSPORT AND HIGHWAYS be pleased to state:

- (a) whether some over bridges of NHAI in Haryana/Punjab are open to use on payment of toll charges;
- (b) if so, the location point at which toll is collected alongwith rate of toll charges at each location/point;
- (c) the basis on which the toll tax has been calculated; and
- (d) the collections during the last three years, year-wise?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SHIPPING, ROAD TRANSPORT AND HIGHWAYS (SHRI K.H. MUNIYAPPA)

- (a) No toll charges are being collected by NHAI specifically for any over bridge in the states of Punjab and Haryana. However, user fee is being collected by NHAI in Punjab and Haryana for completed four lane stretches, which includes over bridges also.
- (b) Locations at which toll is being collected alongwith rate of toll charges for these completed four lane stretches are given at Annex 'A'.
- (c) The toll tax on completed four lane stretches is being collected as per the National Highways (Collection of Fee by any person for the use of section of National Highways/permanent bridge/temporary bridge on National Highways) Rules 1997.
- (d) The amount of toll collections during last three years, year wise, is at Annex 'A'.
