No. 3104/7/2003-BC (III) Government of India Ministry of Information & Broadcasting

Shastri Bhawan, New Delhi, Dated: October 3, 2005

Subject: Constitution of a Committee for reviewing the Programme and Advertising Codes prescribed under the Cable TV Networks (Regulation) Act, 1995 and rules framed thereunder and the Guidelines for certification of films prescribed under the Cinematograph Act, 1952.

It has come to the notice of the Central Government that the guidelines for certification of films for CBFC (Central Board of Films Certification) and the Programme and Advertising Codes prescribed under the Cable TV Networks (Regulation) Act, 1995 and rules framed thereunder, do not cover in details all aspects of the content of films and television programmes. A need has been felt to elaborate and update these Codes and guidelines in order to give them greater specificity and detail and introduce new provisions as found necessary which are in accordance with contemporary community standards with a view to minimise scope for subjective discretion and facilitate self regulation.
