Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SHIPPING, ROAD TRANSPORT AND HIGHWAYS (SHRI K.H. MUNIYAPPA)

(a) and (d) The Development and Maintenance of National Highways is a continuous process , which is taken up based on inter se priority and availability of funds.

(b) and (c) The number of proposals for declaration of State highways into National Highways pending clearance from the Government, State-wise are at Annexure-I. At present, emphasis is being given for development of roads already declared as National Highways requiring large scale improvements instead of declaring more roads as National Highways.

(e) State-wise funds allocated and utilized for development and maintenance of National Highways during the last three years are at Annexure-II.

(f) to (h) 11th Five Year Plan is under preparation. State-wise allocation of funds would be known after approval of the 11th Five Year Plan. Therefore, no time frame as regard enhancements of funds could be indicated.
