Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Government proposes to introduce Delhi Metro into different parts of the States adjoining Delhi; and

(b) if so, the details thereof alongwith the present status of the project?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT ( SHRI AJAY MAKEN )

(a): Urban Transport is a State subject. It is the responsibility of the State Governments to plan and introduce appropriate Mass Rapid Transit Systems. On the basis of proposals submitted by the Delhi Metro Rail Corporation (DMRC) Ltd., along with detailed project reports at the requests of the Governments of Haryana & Uttar Pradesh, Government has approved extension of Delhi Metro to Gurgaon and NOIDA subject to certain conditions.

(b): The details and present status are as under:

(Rs. in Crore)

Project	Length	Cost (inclusive	Status
	(km.)	of Taxes)

Extension of Delhi Metro to Gurgaon	14.47	1600.92	Project works have been taken up by DMRC for implementation.
-------------------------------------	-------	---------	--

Extension of Delhi Metro to NOIDA	7.0	840.56	Government of Uttar Pradesh is yet to comply with the conditions necessary for final approval by Government.
