Answer

MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE)

- (a) & (b): A Defence Procurement Board (DPB) has been constituted to oversee all activities related to acquisition on the Capital account in the Department of Defence flowing out of 'Buy' and 'Buy and Make' decisions. The DPB is chaired by Defence Secretary and Secretary, Department of Defence Production, Secretary, Department of Research & Development, Secretary (Defence Finance), Vice Chief of Defence Staff (VCDS)/Chief of Integrated Defence Staff to Chairman Chief of Staff Committee (CISC) till VCDS is appointed, Vice Chief of Army Staff, Vice Chief of Naval Staff, Vice Chief of Air Staff and Special Secretary (Acquisition) are its members. The functions of the DPB include the coordination, supervision and monitoring of the acquisition process.
- (c) & (d): According to Defence Procurement Procedure 2002 (Version June 2003), direct dealing with Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs), Authorised vendors/Government sponsored export agencies is only permissible. In addition, the standard clauses that are to be signed by any seller of defence equipment to Government of India, as a part of the contract, contains specific provisions that contemplate penal action for the use of undue influence.
- (e) No, Sir.
- (f) & (g): Do not arise.
