the details of the steps taken by the Government for the protection and development of Sindhi language?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SMT. D. PURANDESWARI)

The Government has set up National Council for Promotion of Sindhi Language (NCPSL), an autonomous body fully funded by the Ministry of Human Resource Development in the year 1994 for the promotion and development of Sindhi language. The main objectives of the Council are to promote, develop and propagate Sindhi language and for making available in Sindhi the knowledge of scientific and technological development as well as the knowledge of ideas evolved in the modern context and to advise the Government of India on issues connected with Sindhi language and having a bearing on education as may be referred to it. The Council has been working towards protection and development of Sindhi language since its establishment.
