Rawat Shri Ashok Kumar

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

- (a) whether the Government has received any proposal to set up a Police Hospital on the line of Army Hospitals;
- (b) if so, the funds likely to be provided for the purpose;
- (c) the details of facilities likely to be provided in the hospitals; and
- (d) the time by which it is likely to be set up?

Answer

MINISTER OF THE STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI GURUDAS KAMAT)

(a): No, Madam. There is no proposal for setting up a Police Hospital on the line of Army Hospitals. However, there is a proposal for setting up a 500-bed General Hospital & 300-bed Super Specialty Hospital and other medical institutions/facilities for the Central Paramilitary Forces and their families at an estimated cost of Rs.1389.62 crore. The proposal is in the preliminary stage of processing.

(b) to (d): In view of (a) above, no specific time frame or the details of fund allocation and facilities could be provided at this preliminary stage.
