Chanabasappa Shri Udasi Shivkumar

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

- (a) whether the Government has received recommendations from various quarters including National Commission for Women for a review of various provisions of the Indian Penal Code concerning crime against women;
- (b) if so, the details thereof; and
- (c) the reaction of the Government thereon?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI JITENDERA SINGH)

(a) to (c): The Law Commission of India in its 172nd Report on "Review of Rape Laws" have, amongst others, recommended for changes in the provisions of Indian Penal Code relating to rape, outraging the modesty of women etc. The National Commission for Women has also recommended for changes in the provisions of IPC relating to crimes against women, which, inter alia, pertain to dowry death, outraging the modesty of a women, stripping of women in a public place and to make provisions in IPC for dealing with acid attack as a special offence.

As the provisions relating to rape and crimes against women are sensitive in nature, a High Powered Committee was constituted under the Chairmanship of Union Home Secretary to examine the issue on review of rape laws and to finalize the Bill in the matter. The Committee has submitted its report alongwith a draft Criminal Law (Amendment) Bill, 2011 and recommended to the Government for its enactment.

The draft Criminal Law (Amendment) Bill, 2011 submitted by the Committee is being examined in the Ministry of Home Affairs.

A writ petition (Crl.) No. 129 of 2006 – Laxmi (minor) through her father vs. Union of India and others had been filed in the Supreme Court of India, inter alia, praying for amendment in the Indian Penal Code and the Criminal Procedure Code for dealing with acid attack as a special offence. The matter is pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court.
