Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI JITENDRA SINGH)

(a) & (b): The Current year (up to 26th July 2011) witnessed 999 incidents Of naxal violence leading to 333 deaths (241 civilians and 92 security forces). The State-wise details of naxal violence is given below:

State    Incidents    Civilians    Security forces killed

Andhra Pradesh 15    03    00

Bihar 202    26    03

Jharkhand 281    71    17

Chhattisgarh 261    61    51

Madhya Pradesh 04    00    00

Maharashtra 61    29    06

Orissa 104    19    14

Uttar Pradesh 01    00    00

West Bengal 70    32    01

Total 999    241    92

Central Government under the Security Related Expenditure Scheme grants ex-gratia payment of Rs. 1 lakh to the family of civilian killed and Rs. 3 lakhs to the family of Security personnel killed due to naxal attacks. Besides this, States Governments have their own policy for payment of ex-gratia to the families of civilians and security personnel killed in naxal attacks. State wise and district wise details are not centrally maintained.

(c) & (d): The Central Government has adopted an integrated two-pronged approach to deal with left Wing extremism. The first prong is development. The Integrated Action Plan with an outlay of Rs. 1500 crores in 2010-11 and Rs. 1800 crores in 2011-12 is an example of the many development plans that are being implemented in the affected districts. The second prong is maintenance of law and order, and State Governments have taken calibrated police action to apprehend extremists.
