

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
SHIPPING
LOK SABHA

UNSTARRED QUESTION NO:3976
ANSWERED ON:30.04.2012
INSURANCE FOR MAJOR PORTS
Swamygowda Shri N Cheluvarya Swamy

Will the Minister of SHIPPING be pleased to state:

- (a) whether the Government is devising a uniform policy allowing major ports to go in for insurance;
- (b) if so, the details thereof;
- (c) whether the Government has drafted a policy that classified the risks in three different categories as in floating equipments which go to the sea, the on-ground port machinery and the third which covers the loss of business due to any uncontrollable circumstances;
- (d) if so, whether the scheme will give great relief to the shipping industry; and
- (e) if so, the details thereof?

Answer

MINISTER OF SHIPPING (SHRI G.K. VASAN)

- (a) to (e): No, Madam. No final decision has been taken on devising a uniform policy allowing major ports to go in for insurance.