- (c) the names and the number of schools derecognised on the basis of said complaints during the last three years; and
- (d) the reasons for the derecognition of said schools?

Answer

MINISTER OF THE STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. D. PURANDESWARI)

- (a) 1643 complaints have been received by the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) received during the last three years.
- (b) The complaints pertain to non-fulfilment of land norms, lack of infrastructure, non-payment of salary, non adherence of service condition, illegal termination of service, detaining of dossiers of staff, appointment of unqualified teachers, employment of retired personnel in service, exorbitant fee hike, charging of capitation fee and donation, sponsoring of students of unaffiliated schools in the examinations of the Board etc.
- (c) The list of 13 schools which have been disaffiliated during the last 3 years is at Annexure.
- (d) These schools were disaffiliated due to violation of affiliation norms such as non-fulfilment of land norms, sponsoring of students of unaffiliated schools etc.
