- (b) if so, the details thereof, State/bank-wise;
- (c) whether the Government proposes to fill up such vacancies in all the States;
- (d) if so, the details thereof and if not the reasons therefor;
- (e) the number of employees/officers to be retired from banks in the next five years alongwith the steps proposed to be taken by the Government to fill such vacancies;
- (f) whether the Government has any proposal to revive the Banking Services Recruitment Board; and
- (g) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor?

Answer

MINISTER OF THE STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI NAMO NARAIN MEENA)

- (a) to (d): The requirement of manpower in Nationalised Banks, inter alia, depends upon the business volume, business growth, existing employee strength, retirements, etc. Accordingly, the Banks undertake recruitment of staff to fill vacancies on ongoing basis as per their requirement.
- (e) to (g): At present, there is no proposal to revive Banking Service Recruitments Board as recruitment is done by individual Banks on an ongoing basis, which takes into account the results in common examination conducted by the Institute of Banking Personnel Selection (IBPS). A Statement of projected vacancies due to retirement in Nationalised Banks in next five years is annexed.
