Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. SHASHI THAROOR)

- (a)&(b): All the States have notified the State Rules framed under the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory (RTE), Act, 2009, for the implementation of and compliance with the provisions of the Act.
- (c)&(d): So far 27 States/UTs have notified the local grievance redressal mechanisms to help parents in seeking redressal of their grievances with regard to the RTE Act.
- (e): The Government has heeded the sense of the discussions in the Central Advisory Board on Education in its meeting held on 8th November, 2012 not to relax timelines for school infrastructure standards set out in the RTE Act.
