Manian Shri O. S.;Rajendran Shri C.;Rawat Shri Ashok Kumar

Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

- (a) the name of districts in the country where Kendriya Vidyalayas (KVs) have not been opened;
- (b) whether the Government proposes to open KVs in each of these districts;
- (c) if so, the time by which the KVs are likely to be opened; and
- (d) if not, the reasons therefor?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. SHASHI THAROOR)

(a) to (d) The Kendriya Vidyalayas (KVs) are opened to cater to the educational needs of the children of transferable Central Government employees including personnel from Defence, Para-Military and Central Government Public Sector undertakings. As such, these are not district specific. A district with a large concentration of Central Government employees can have more than one KV whereas districts without an adequate strength of such employees would not have a single KV. At present there are 182 such districts in the country, as per the details given in Annexure-I that do not have any KV.
